Kelly earned her Juris Doctor from the University of St. Thomas School of Law in Minneapolis, MN, where she served as President of the Women's Law Student Association and was a member of the American Association for Justice mock trial team.

Kelly's law school thesis paper covered Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. During a summer internship in Washington, D.C., Kelly was granted access to Justice Ginsburg's papers on file in the Library of Congress and has a signed letter from the Justice herself.

After law school, Kelly completed a judicial clerkship with the Hennepin County District Court in Minneapolis.

Kelly is licensed to practice law in Washington, D.C. and looks forward to sitting for the Florida Bar in the future.

Prior to receiving her law degree, Kelly earned her Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Florida State University.

In her free time, Kelly enjoys traveling, cooking, and reading. She recently moved back to Florida after four (very cold) years in Minnesota.
